

About Lawcover

Explainer video - Transcript

I'd like to share a little about who we are, why we exist, and how Lawcover supports the legal profession. These are the three things I want you to take away.

Who We Are and Why We Exist

First, who we are and why we exist.

Lawcover was established in 2004, at a time when the commercial insurance market was unpredictable and many solicitors were left uncertain about their future cover. We were created by the Law Society of NSW to change that, to ensure the profession had access to reliable, long-term professional indemnity insurance.

Our goal is simple: to give solicitors the confidence that comes from having a stable, purpose-driven insurer behind them. Even though we're owned by the Law Society, we operate independently, and everything we do is for the benefit of the practices we serve.

What Lawcover Offers

Second, what Lawcover offers.

Our policy provides a $2 million limit, and its approved annually by the NSW Attorney General. We cover firms across New South Wales, the ACT, and the Northern Territory, plus many national firms with a presence in NSW. We work hard to provide broad insurance cover that meets the needs of solicitors, while keeping premiums as stable as possible, even when the economy fluctuates.

How We Support the Profession

Finally, how we support the profession.

Our role goes beyond insurance. We protect solicitors from claims that simply don't have merit, and because prevention is better than a cure, we invest heavily in risk management education, offering these resources to you, at little or no cost.

And when claims do arise, our claims team is ready to help, because we know how stressful claims can be.

We're proud to stand behind the profession and support you in every way we can.

If you'd like to learn more or have any questions, feel free to contact our Insurance Services Team, we're here to help.
